A MESSAGE FROM EDITOR

"Education is not the learning of facts ,but the training of minds to think "

Albert Einstein

Dear all,

I am extremely delighted for the first edition of our newsletter.

"Action speak louder and clearer than words"

Education has its worth when it includes the purpose of imparting students the care , values of confidence, conviction and character. It is a team effort and my heartiest congratulations to all faculties and students for their sincere efforts for the success of the college venture.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PATRON

From her desk.....

We are facing truly unprecedented circumstances. First and foremost,our hearts go out to anyone who's been impacted by the virus,either directly or indirectly. Furthermore I wish to place my respect and appreciation ,their families and people around the world, who are on the frontlines of providing healthcare and public service.

We are pleased to publish our First edition of KIMSCON newsletter- a reflection on the welfare activities and accomplishments. We acknowledge the time constraints and the many news sources that vie for your attention, so we offer a brief look at each story as well as the opportunity to click on an item to get more information.

We value your staying linked to us and I hope this electronic newsletter is just another means for you to keep in touch with the latest news, info, and inspirational stories including COVID News.

We have much to look forward to!

Thank you for taking the time to read and give us your thoughts!
